SMALL POINTERS.

For the Home Circle.

A girl's hair is one of her points of beauty, and it should never be neglected. Regular steady brushing of the hair with a clean brush, fifty strokes before going to bed at night, twenty-five in the morning when dressing, will keep the hair thick, smooth, soft and lovely. Once a month at least the tips of the hair should be clipped off, just the merest tip-ends at the edges, carefully washed with tepid water and soap, thoroughly rubbed, and well dried. If mamma has time to take this sort of care of her daughter's hair, she will be repaid by seeing rich and flowing tresses, or sisters may easily do it for one another. Do not cut your hair in bangs. It is very much prettier simply parted and combed back plainly, then braided in one or two long tails, and tied with a ribbon. Avoid essences, oils, and pigments; the hair needs only cleanliness, and much brushing. Keep your bair brush clean by frequently dipping it into a bath of hot water and ammonia and drying it in the sun. Everything used in treating the hair must be scrupulously neat. The pointed snoes which are now so generally worn cause many corns. Women who recognize the fact that the feet were made to walk with, and that in order to walk comfortably one must have comfortable shoes, do not often sacrifice comfort for fashion.

India silks are much in vogue for children, and with shirring or accordion pleats they are made as quaintly picturesque as any artistic soul could wish. Simplicity must rule, of course, and nothing disfigures a child like any aping of the fashions of the grown-up, unless it be of the dainty picture gowns of other

A new dish is stuffed potatoes, prepared as follows: Boil several large, sound potatoes, salt them when they are nearly done; peel, cut in halves. When cold enough to handle and to keep their form, remove the inner part of each, leaving a cavity for the filling Cut a slice from the end of each, so that the potatoes will stand upright. When done fill with minced chicken; thus utilizing, perhaps, the remains of a former meal. If so, add the dressing also and cover with chicken gravy. Place in the oven a few moments. Arrange the stuffed potatoes upon a platter. Garnish with crisp lettuce leaves filled with cranberry jelly. Serve with celery, cheese and olives for lunch. Any kind of a filling the fancy might suggest, or that was at hand, would be good. For instance, olives, cheese and hard boiled eggs chopped separately. Or veal, mutton tongue, Hamburg steak with the addition of gravy. Or cabbage chopped fine, including the stalks, two eggs beaten, a half cup of cream or milk, a pinch of salt. Place all in a hot frying pan to come to Seattle. His broth-and fry in butter. Stir constantly. er was employed as bar-When done fill the potatoes. Serve keeper in the Northern hotel bar. with any kind of gravy. Or a filling of codfish with milk gravy powdered over them; or they can be arranged Spanish style, with tomatoes and red peppers. Salad served in this manner g ves variety.

BALLADE OF THE NEW WOMAN. Of the new woman now to sing You bid me, Prince, whose jangled lyre Whose wrinkled muse, of weary wing, Has lost her early might and fire. More readily your fond desire Would I concede and chant for you If the fair being you admire,

She is, alas! no novel thing; For history herself might tire, Might faint and fall, in following Where the old woman did aspire. What stellar space, what mortal mire. Has not the fair sex ventured through? Indeed, we men folk might admire If the new woman were but new.

If the new woman were but new.

She vexes not with questioning, Must taste, experience, inquire, For curiosity's the spring That sends her soaring higher and higher That bade her with the snake conspire, And to the snake alone be true Who brought on us that heavenly ire. If the new woman were but new! ENVOL

Prince, old as Adam is, our sire, As old as Eve, whom Adam knew; We might not labor and perspire If the new woman were but new.

HARRY FRAZIER MAY DIE.

A Former Honolulu Resident Shot at Seattle.

Well-Known Here,

The Seattle News of April 13 brings the news of the shooting of Harry Frazier, who at one time resided in Honolulu and was very popular among the "boys." He was a son-in-law of Hugh Munro. who was blacksmith at the Marine Railway here for some years. The following is a condensed report of the tragic affair:

At 1:40 o'clock this morning P. E. Page, of Mitchell, S. D., shot and dangerously wounded Harry Frazier, proprietor of the North-ern hotel bar. The two were seat-ed at a table shaking dice for money when the trouble occurred. They had some words over a throw, and Page called Frazier indecent names, and at the same time reached for his revolver. Frazier rose from the chair and was turned partially from his opponent, when Page raised his arm, and with the muzzle of the revolver only a few inches from Frazier's body, fired.

At the time of the shooting, besides the participants, E. C. Marden, F. Johnson, and M. A. Ireton were in the barroom.

After the shooting the specta-tors caught Page and held him until Sergt. Sullivan and Detective Cudihee arrived. Page was taken to police headquarters and locked in the steel cell. He gave his name and address but refused to tell his age or occupation. When searched he had $380 in his possession. He had been drinking during the evening, and was under the influence of liquor at the time of the shooting.

The bullet entered Frazier's back a little to the left and below the small of the back. He was undressed and put on the bed His injuries become very painful and he suffered intensely. Under the advice of his physician, he was this morning taken to the hotel. The weapon used was a Smith & Wesson 38 calibre revolver of beautiful design. The handle was of mother of pearl and the steel silver mounted.

is that Page had accused Frazier and Saturdays of each week. of cheating. As Frazier ros from his chair and leaned toward Page, the latter thought he was going to attack him, so he drew his revolver and fired ...

Another account is to the ef-fect that during the progress of the game Frazier lost $8, and threw a $10 bill on the table in payment of the indebtedness. Page put $2 in change on the table, and was about to pick up Headquarters Enterprise Brewing Co. the $10 bill, when Frazier grab. bed the $10 bill and the $2 in silver. This so enraged Page that he shot Frazier after the latter arose and had put himself in an attitude which Page construed to mean fight.

Harry Frazier came to th's city about five years ago from San Francisco, of which he is a na-tive. When he first came here he went to work for Agassiz & McConnell, tending bar. He worked for them three years and then worked for R. Sartori for two years. When the Northern hotel reopened recently he opened the bar there. About two Chas. J. McCarrhy, Manager months ago he sent for his brother It was Frazier's intention to go to San Francisco on this morning's boat for a visit to his mother.

At the hospital to day Mrs. Frazier was at her husband's bedside. He was resting very easily this afternoon, considering the nature of the wound. One thing in the patient's favor is that he has not bled any internally. He is attended by Doctors Kline, Eagleston and Smith, who think he may recover.

ROOT BEER

IN LIQUID NO BOILING EASILY MADE

THIS PACKAGE MAKES FIVE GALLONS

DELICIOUS AND SOMEKLINE

It is beyond all dispute a wonderful health-giving drink, and it is very easy for any one to understand why this is so. The root, herbs, barks and berries, from which HIRES ROOT BEER is skillfully made, are the identical things from which physicians get their most help ful remedies. For instance: Do you believe that sarsaparilla is a valuable remedy? Well HIRES ROOTBEER contains more sarsaparilla than many sarsaparillas. The same is true as

It is doing more to advance practical temperance than many people realize. It is used and recommended by the most cautious and conservative temperance people. The most scrappulous abstainer can enjoy HIRES ROOTBEER him relt, and recommend it to others as an agreeable and healthful substitute for the strong drink which be opposes.

It is a homemode and homemaking beverage. It is very easily prepared, and if the plain directions are followed, it will always be good. Every member of the family, from the baby to the grandfather, can enjoy HIRES ROOTBEER, and every one of them will have better health for each swallow they take. It improves the appetite, purifies the blood, and tones the whole system. Children especially delight in HIRES ROOTBEER. Its preparation interests them, and its use does them good. In thousands of homes, "HIRES ROOTBEER that mother made," will be among the happiest recollections of childhood.

BEWARE! Do not confound it with other Rootbeer preparations, as it is entirely unlike anything else of the kind. Beware of extracts advertised for making Rootbeer, as they are composed chiefly of coloring matter and oils to give them savor, which excite the nerves and cause nausea.

Hires Improved Rootbeer packages makes really the most harmless of our fashionable drinks, yet nourishing and strengthening the blood. It cleanses the system of the poisonns humors that develop in kidney and urinary diseases, and in fact, in any case that arises from an impure state of the blood.

Hires Improved Rootbeer is offered to the public with full confidence of itsmerds. It also no poisonous or injurious properties whatever, and an infant may take it with per-
